REFLECTIONS...

In Memory of Christian Adolf Gerber

Christian Adolf Gerber: tender-hearted. . . caring. . . generous. . . patient. . . a listener. . . accessible. . . melodious. . . a good sport. . . counselor. . . "Pop". . . loved. . . missed. . . in the presence of his Savior.

C.A. ministered, served and instructed for over 40 years at Fort Wayne Bible College. The Fort Wayne Bible College Family would like to remember "Pop" Gerber and what better way than with reflections from his fellow workers and loved ones.

"I began teaching with "Pop" Gerber in 1939. In my first, learning, stumbling years of teaching he was a real friend and inspiration. His hours knew no end as far as the students were concerned. Most evenings he taught until 9 o'clock and then would take the street car downtown to the YMCA where he would swim and relax. Many days he would quote me his "verse for the day," he had claimed before he left home.

I visited him at Lutheran Hospital a few weeks before he died. . . almost 100 years old. His first question was "are you still at the Bible College?" You can understand the satisfaction that is mine in knowing that it has been my privilege to carry on in some small degree the work begun many years ago by this giant of the faith. They set the standards!"

--Dr. Ira Gerig
FWBC Music Professor

-C. Adolf Gerber-
1882-1983

"Many nights we children would wake up and find a light on downstairs where he would be "on his knees." He would be pouring out his heart to God on our behalf and that of others.

He never walked. You always saw him running. He looked forward to the day's activities and was always grateful for everything.

Many an evening he would bring a group home for "cocoa" and maybe some of mother's "cherry pie," for which she was known! Our home was always open to everyone.

The grandchildren and great-grandchildren all loved "Grandpa Gerber" and had many years of enjoyment with him. His room was often the first place they would dart upon arriving. Never once did he complain that their arrival made him nervous.

Behind all of Daddy's activities was our mother faithfully supporting him. She shared his "gift of hospitality" and always made others feel welcome."

--Dr. Vergil Gerber
Son

"Introduction to Music was a joy rather than a burden with Professor Gerber. His unique technique with students made us want to come to class and participate. His energetic personality was contagious!"

--Evelyne Schmidt
FWBC Head
Bookkeeper

"I remember Mr. Gerber for his soft-spoken, patient way of handling his students. I never had the privilege of singing under his direction, but know of students who did and they appreciated his kindly ways. He seemed to have a real knack for taking people who could not sing or read musical notes and be able to develop within them the ability to appreciate music and even to sing melody and parts. The fruit of the Spirit was certainly evident in his life. He was exactly the kind of music teacher needed at B.C. to help future pastors and leaders of small churches to be able to head up musical programs. He certainly lived Christ before his students and colleagues."

--Dr. Wes Gerig
FWBC Bible Professor

"We will go with hearts united,
Telling of a Savior's love,
Tell it, giving God the glory,
Till we meet in heav'n above.

"We will tell it, we will tell it,
Tell of Christ's redeeming love.
Till our walk of life is ended,
Till we see Him face to face."

(Fourth verse & chorus of "We Will Tell It")

--Christian Adolf Gerber

The B-I-B-L-E: Another Look

"The B-I-B-L-E, yes that's the Book for me!

I stand alone on the Word of God, the B-I-B-L-E!"

Such a familiar chorus suggests the supremacy of the Bible, but a practical examination of Christian practice reveals the opposite. Thus, the Bible frequently comes in "second place" to various human substitutes like education experience, and especially tradition.

From a pastoral perspective I am concerned about the impact that traditions of men often have within the leadership of local churches. We allow tradition to define sin, govern lifestyle, and even dictate Christian practice. The result is that allegiance to the words of men supercedes loyalty to the Scriptures.

Tradition Vs. The Word

In Mathew 15:6 Jesus challenged the Pharisees for engaging in such a practice. "Thus you nullify the Word of God for the sake of your tradition." To the enemies of our Lord tradition had become more important than the God-breathed Word itself. The scripture of authority was passed into human hands which "watered down" the Word of God with their own additions.

In every local church I have been privileged to pastor, there have been prevailing traditions that I necessarily considered. Also, there were often well-meaning Christians who desired that I preach them from the pulpit. Naturally they were disappointed and sometimes irritated when I refused. However, for me to have obliged them would have resulted in my compromise with the call to preach that only the Lord had given. The charge is clear, "Preach the Word," God's Word, not man's. (11 Tim. 4:2) Such a compelling command cannot be ignored, and as one privileged to teach those studying for the pastorate, I have tried to impress upon the students the need for proclaiming only the Bible.

Evangelicals & Traditions

As Evangelicals we have frequently expressed our abhorrence with Catholic traditions such as purgatory, celibacy, and Mariology. Still, the truth is that any preoccupation with tradition inevitably leads to a devaluation of God's Word. Even the most Evangelical traditions are damaging in the Church when they are equated with the Scripture.

In this "Year of the Bible" I would hope that we would all affirm the "Sola Scriptura" teaching of Martin Luther. God's authoritative Word is all we need to stand upon. It alone is sharper than any two-edged sword. It alone pierces into the deepest recesses of man's soul. It alone is powerful and authoritative.

President's Perspective

Dear Alumni:

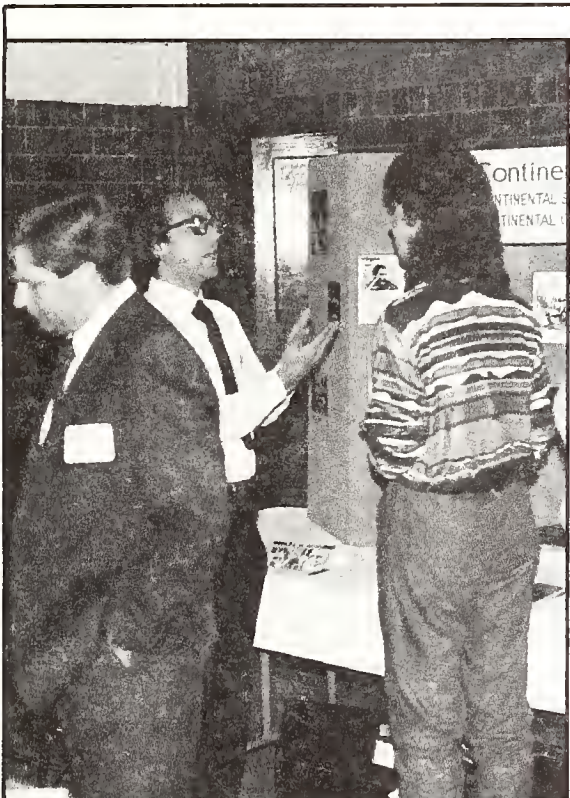

Much has happened since my last PULSE/LIFELINES letter to you!

Another school year has started, our new faculty members have successfully settled into the classroom routine and God has graciously taken me through an unforeseen experience in my life. As most of you know, it was necessary for me to have emergency heart by-pass surgery the first part of September. I went to see my doctor one day and I was in surgery the next. How true is the statement that we know not what the morrow shall bring!

I am recovering nicely and I thank the Lord for His mercy. I am also thankful for the college administrators who have done a splendid job during my absence. They have carried the additional responsibilities in a very professional manner. Their concentrated efforts have resulted in the smooth flow of business and educational training at Fort Wayne Bible College. I am well satisfied with the progress that is taking place here at the college and cannot adequately express my appreciation for the team work of the administrators.

When I was released from the intensive care unit I was able to have daily contact with the college. Upon my arrival at home I began to conduct various meetings, including meeting

Eli Steiner. . .

A Home Missionary. . .A Family Tradition

The Steiner heritage and genealogy has held many missionaries and Christian workers. . .Eli Steiner is no exception to the family tradition!

Born and raised on a farm, Eli Steiner, our featured alumnus, was saved at the age of 14 during a revival service at the Woodburn Evangelical Mennonite Church. The desire and call to serve God as a "home missionary" was instilled in him at a young age and has stayed with him to this very day.

Instead of immediately going to college from public school, Eli decided he would stay home and farm for a period of time. During those few years after graduation he served in World War I and upon returning from the service married Emma Yagey, a young lady he had grown up with.

Also before entering college and during the thirties and forties he was engaged in business as a hatchery man.

In the late 1920's Eli enrolled in Fort Wayne Bible Institute. He was married, the father of two children and ready to train for the ministry. He led a vigorous schedule, but he provided for his family, enjoyed college and gained vital instruction for his future Christian ministry.

Eli reflects on his time at Fort Wayne Bible Institute. "The students and faculty members were a real inspiration to me. For three summers I, along with Jared Gerig and S.A. Witmer, studied together at the Winona Lake School of Theology. The highlight of my college years was being part of a quartet and being able to visit many churches and represent the Institute."

Eli graduated from the Bible Institute in 1930 and then was the beginning of many years of pastoral service. Upon graduation he moved his family to Bluffton, Ohio, where he pastored the EMC there for 11 years. From Bluffton he pastored the Lafayette EMC for 5 years, then on to the Berne EMC from 1951-1962. During his pastorate at Berne he also served as the president of EMC for two years. Upon resigning from Berne he took on a full-time role of conference executive secretary for two years. Returning to the pastorate, Eli came to the Highland Bethel EMC and pastored until his retirement in 1964. Eli's son, Richard, is presently the senior pastor at Highland Bethel.

Besides serving as a full-time pastor, Eli also served in other various capacities. He conducted a radio program during his time in Lafayette and wrote a book entitled "CHRIST OUR FOUNDATION" which contains many of the devotionals that were used on the radio program.

During his pastorate years he held the position of editor for the EMC denomination paper and served as superintendent over the Kentucky and Tennessee districts. This was in addition to his previously stated positions of president and executive secretary of the conference.

To add to his rigorous routine he would take two weeks out of each year and conduct special services in EM churches. He proudly reports he spoke in every U.S. EM church that existed during his active ministry!

Eli retired in 1964, but in no means did he slacken in his Christian ministry. Much time has been spent tracing the Steiner genealogy and a large book has resulted from his efforts. For many years after retirement he was available for pulpit supply, served on the Highland Bethel Church counsel and was named Pastor Emeritus. Up until January of 1983 he taught adult Sunday School every week.

In 1981 Eli's bride of 60 years died of cancer, but Eli has many precious memories of her through their six children. Phyllis (McCoy) resides in Anaheim, CA and is the wife of a minister. Wilma (Peterson) is the wife of Vernon, Pastor of the Royal Oak Missionary Church in Michigan. Paul is president of Brotherhood Mutual Insurance Inc. and is chairman of the Fort Wayne Bible College Governing Board. Richard is pastor of Highland Bethel EMC. Carolyn, a FWBC graduate, is married to Vocational Counselor, Willard Rowell, and Sharon is married to Elementary School Principal, Robert Connor. Both daughters live in the Fort Wayne area.

Eli is looking forward to more prosperous years of life with his new wife, Virginia. He plans to continue to serve the Lord, enjoy the future surrounded by good reading, loving children and precious grandchildren!

Sports Report

- A Winning Season in Soccer
- Volleyball Winds Down
- Basketball Forecast

The 1983 soccer season has been the most successful in the four-year history of the program! The Falcons completed regular season play with a record of 11 wins and 4 losses and at this writing have advanced into District Playoffs. Out of the 14 teams competing in the NCCAA District III, the Falcons are ranked an impressive third.

The caliber of play for the team has been steadily improving over the last four years. Players such as Graham West, who currently leads the team with 27 goals and 11 assists, gives strength to the offensive line-up. A junior, standing at 6'4", Ray Hylton captured All-District and Honorable Mention All-American status last year and is a key contributor to controlling the mid-field. Senior captain, John Hughes, plays sweeper back and outstanding defense in the backfield.

The FWBC Women's Volleyball Team concluded the season with a winning record of 12-5! Led by Coach Deb Rupp, the lady Falcons gave an all-out effort which resulted in a successful and encouraging season.

Next year's Women's Volleyball schedule promises to be similar and the team is looking forward to it with anticipation, especially since all of the ladies on this year's squad are eligible to play next year.

Men's Varsity Basketball is also in the practice stages. Coach Steve Morley returns after taking one year for sabbatical leave. Morley's 1983-84 team will be the tallest and biggest team since the National Championship team of 1975-76. Five team members stand over the 6'2" mark.

Coach is optimistic about the season and feels there is good talent with a good spirit which makes for a competitive team. The team is shooting for the Regional Tournament to be held in late spring.

(Women's and men's basketball schedules appear on page 11).

Outreach '84 Set For BC Campus

A scene from last year's missions conference. Here, Dr. Timothy Warner, Dean of Missions at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, speaks at one of the workshops.

A two-day conference on world missions will convene at Fort Wayne Bible College for the second consecutive year, March 30-31, 1984.

Outreach '84 will explore the scope and breadth of world ministries as a means of assisting local churches in their own emphasis on, and understanding of, missions. The conference will also be directed at assisting persons who may be considering missions as a vocational choice as well as providing information to their congregations.

The conference will be sponsored by The Mennonite Church, The Missionary Church, The Evangelical Mennonite Church, The General Conference Mennonite Church, The Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission, and Fort Wayne Bible College.

While the entire roster of workshop leaders is not complete, confirmation of the main speakers has been received. They are Don Jacobs, Executive Director of the Mennonite Christian and Leadership Foundation, and Rev. Billy Simbo, former director of the Sierra Leone Bible College.

Persons wishing further information on the conference may contact the Public Relations Office at Fort Wayne Bible College.

WBCL Sets Sharathon Dates

The eighth annual WBCL "Sharathon" fund raising campaign will take place January 10-12, 1984, as the Fort Wayne Bible College radio station seeks to top last year's all-time record contribution mark.

This past January, the three-day, on-the-air campaign raised nearly $300,000, far surpassing the goal of $240,000. Some 4500 listeners responded to the fund appeal which annually raises about eighty percent of the annual operating budget of the station.

Joining the regular station staff, the special guest host for "Sharathon" will be Wayne Pederson, heard weekdays on WBCL on the program, "Footprints," as well as on Saturdays on "Discoveries" and "New Dimensions." Wayne has participated in past "Sharathons" on the station.

More than 200 volunteers participated behind the scenes during the "Sharathon '83" as the station increased its grand total from all "Sharathons" to almost 1.2 million dollars.

From The Director

Rev. Howard Dunlap
Alumni Director

October is here again. Yes, it is beautiful and I love it, but it reminds me that another year is counted in my life span as the years are quickly passing. Another semester is half over. It will soon be another election. Life is very, very busy. I am sure you have found this to be true in your life.

PHON-A-THON '83 was held in May. The potential promised was $34,613. We have received $26,403.00 as of October 19. You are encouraged to send in your pledge as soon as possible.

PHON-A-THON '84 will be March 19, 20, 22, 26, 27, and 29. We would appreciate your cooperation in prayer, volunteering to help make calls, and in giving financially. Our goal is $35,000.

Scholarship Fund

Ten thousand dollars of the PHON-A-THON goal will go into the Alumni Scholarship Fund. We now have $30,050 in this fund and, each year during the second semester we award $400 scholarships to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. We use the accumulated interest each year in scholarships which allowed us to give six awards last year.

The Alumni Advisory Board has set $180,000 for our giving goal for 1983-84. This is for all Alumni giving. Many

Lifestyle Giving

Fort Wayne Bible College has enjoyed many blessings this year . . . Dear Friend, . . . and one of those is having you as a friend. You have been faithful in your support. . . both financially and in prayer. . . and I thank God daily for you.

We may be conscious of our stewardship throughout the year, but in December, it seems like we "take inventory" to make sure that our stewardship has been complete, allowing us maximum tax benefits.

Consider Tax Benefits

The best way for you to give to Fort Wayne Bible College is in such a way that it not only provides the support needed to carry out our important ministry, but also returns the most benefits to you. This takes careful planning! And if one of those benefits is tax-related, the planning must be done before December 31, for maximum advantage in your financial situation.

To encourage charitable giving, the federal government has provided tax incentives which can actually improve your spendable income. Through wise planning, you can take advantage of the method of giving best suited to your situation.

Cash Gifts

Cash is still the most popular way to make a charitable gift. If you itemize your deductions your gift to Fort Wayne Bible College will reduce your tax bill. Your out-of-pocket cost will be much less than the amount of your gift.

For example, if you are in the 30% tax bracket and you make a $2,000 charitable gift to Fort Wayne Bible College before December 31, you may deduct that amount from your taxable income for the year, and your taxes next April will be reduced by $600.

Gifts of cash are deductible up to 50% of your adjusted gross income. If your gift exceeds 50% limit, any excess can be carried over and deducted for up to five succeeding years.

Indiana residents have special benefits of credit against state tax. Married couples can receive 50% or a

Keith Vincent,
Vice President for Development &
Public Relations

maximum of $200 as direct credit against state tax.

Consider Property Gifts

An additional tax saving can be claimed for a gift of property you have owned for more than one year, and which has increased in value. If you sold this property, 40% of the long-term capital gains would be taxable to you as ordinary income. By contributing this property to Fort Wayne Bible College you can completely avoid this tax and still deduct the full fair market value of the property.

A gift of appreciated property is deductible up to 30% of adjusted gross income, with a carryover of the excess for up to five years.

A gift of life insurance is another unique way to contribute to Fort Wayne Bible College. You can purchase a new policy on your life, give ownership of the policy to Fort Wayne Bible College, and claim an income tax charitable deduction for contributions of the premium payments.

Or, you can donate a policy you've owned for some time and claim as a deduction its current value, and remaining premium payments you make.

When you make a gift of tangible personal property related to our tax-exempt function, you may deduct fair market value of the property, without the payment of any capital gain tax on appreciation, providing the property has been owned for more than twelve months.

Gifts That Return Benefits

There are several kinds of gifts you can make which will provide you with a lifetime income as well as an immediate income tax savings.

The charitable gift annuity is a unique way in which you can benefit Fort Wayne Bible College during your lifetime and receive income from your gift. You receive a tax deduction when you enter into the annuity agreement and a large portion of the income you with the executive committee of the college governing board and, as of mid-November, I have started coming to the office on a regular basis. Of course, I have not yet worked up to an eight-hour day, but I am progressing steadily and am enjoying being back amongst the activity.

My heart-felt thank-you goes out to all who sent cards, provided meals to ease the strain on Naomi, sent flowers, and faithfully remembered me in prayer. My successful surgery, encouraging recovery, and thankful spirit are all direct results of your prayers.

Please continue to uplift me in your prayers as I return to a working pace and as I seek God's wisdom and guidance as president of Fort Wayne Bible College. May God bless!

HIS Company And "Positive Side" Count The Blessings Of An Eventful Summer

By Sonja Strahm
Director, HIS Company

Summer Tour '83 was filled with many challenges and much blessing for HIS Company, FWBC's Christian drama troupe. The tour, beginning May 27 and concluding August 14, took the seven of us on a 16,000 mile journey through Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Arizona, California and the Hawaiian islands of Kauai, Oahu, and Hawaii to churches, camps, beach, and prison for presentations.

The major play presented was "Who's to Blame?" by Jean Springer, based upon Philippians and dealing with the concept of unity within the body of believers. Each member can attest to the importance of unity within a troupe as a necessary foundation of presenting drama; the challenge was ever before them, and praise goes to the Lord for the unity they experienced.

In addition to performing the play, the troupe did a drama/music package entitled "Reason to Love," through which they expressed the only reason to live, the only reason to love, is Jesus Christ.

Graciousness on the part of those they encountered was a highlight. With anticipation they looked forward to new days, new faces, and new experiences; and, the greatest blessing was when people would share how the specific program presented had spoken to them individually.

These comments representing persons across the nation well-summarize the intent and outcome of the past summer's ministry:

"What an impressive group...Not only their talents and ministry were outstanding, but I especially appreciated their flexibility, friendliness, courtesy, hard work, ability to relate with people personally, and their outstanding exemplary conduct. As an alumnus, I was very proud to have them represent FWBC."

"...When you have the feeling that everything has gone well and the hearts of people have been enriched, you know the Lord is operating. I highly recommend HIS Company."

"God really ministered through the group. Five people rededicated their lives to God."

"Experiencing a tremendous spiritual blessing from our Lord is not complete until we share it with others. The two night performances of HIS Company in our church were professionally done and spiritually uplifting...a superb representative for the college and I'm glad they were able to come to Kauai."

By Jeff Kehler,
Member, Positive Side

To record all the events that occurred during the summer would only take a small notebook, but to record what was learned as members of "Positive Side" would take volumes, at least six, because each member would have his/her account to reveal. Each student participating was taught different things and each person grew in the knowledge of who God is in his/her life as a personal God.

We found we needed everyone to have a successful ministry. I Corinthians 12:12 states, "The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. . ." We were, undoubtedly, a unique collection of body parts. Coming from five states, having five majors, claiming four denominations, hosting various degrees of musical ability, and being six very diverse personalities, God molded us into a team of ministers, each one needing the other five to complete the work God had given to us for the summer. It was not easy. It took a lot of work. Yet, we succeeded because as we look to God for help, He made us one.

We, as "Positive Side," had a successful summer. We had a good sound, accident free travel, and the compliments of many audiences but, most important of all, we learned to let God work through us to bring glory to His name.
